TAX VALUES NOT AFFECTED BY DECISIONFULLBRIGHT SAYS TAXPAYERS HAVE NO CHANCE TO ESCAPE PAYMENT.

Atlanta, Nov. 22.—That no property values now on the tax digest will be or can be affected by the recent decision of the United States supreme court involving the constitutionality of the Georgia tax equalization law, was emphasized Monday by H. J. Fullbright, state tax commissioner, who stated that a very mistaken impression concerning the effect of the decision has gone abroad in the state.

"It is not the values now on the tax digest that are affected by the decision," said Commissioner Fullbright. "Every taxpayer in the state must pay his 1920 taxes on the basis of the digest as now made up. If he has paid his taxes on a valuation higher than he thought his property was worth, he cannot get a rebate because of the supreme court decision. If he has not paid his taxes as yet, and, wants his returns reduced because of the supreme court decision, he cannot get a reduction. He must pay on the basis of the digest as now made up. In other words, the supreme court decision does not retroact upon the existing tax digests."

It is not the taxes for the present year, some of which have been paid and some of which are yet to be paid, that are causing concern to Commissioner Fullbright and other state officials. It is the possibility that the supreme court's decision may cause a breakdown of taxable values next year that is worrying them. There is some divergent opinion as to the exact effect of the decision. Graham Wright, assistant attorney-general, believes the effect will not amount to much. Commissioner Fullbright believes the decision can be used by any property owner to bring a reduction of his assessment when the new returns are made next year.

For the purpose of getting a definite and official statement on the subject, representing, if possible, a general agreement of views, Commissioner Fullbright planned to have a conference this week with attorney-general, comptroller-general and state treasurer.

"Sixth. The South Georgia Conference is in no sense a political party, it most emphatically as a body of great church has nothing to do with political parties nor partisan politics. Its every member has the inherent right of every free born American citizen to exercise an untrammelled and unchallenged franchise. The body is not concerned whether its members supported Cox or Harding, this candidate, that or the other. This is a matter of individual and inherent right."

"Seventh. Rev. H. L. Pearson, of Lumber City, who moved the discontinuance of Bro. Phillips, and every man among us who voted for discontinuance, did so purely with the idea that they were acting fairly with Mr. Phillips himself, and justice to his family and protection to the church."

"Eighth. The South Georgia Conference is in no sense a political party, it most emphatically as a body of great church has nothing to do with political parties nor partisan politics. Its every member has the inherent right of every free born American citizen to exercise an untrammelled and unchallenged franchise. The body is not concerned whether its members supported Cox or Harding, this candidate, that or the other. This is a matter of individual and inherent right."

"Ninth. The South Georgia Conference is in no sense a political party, it most emphatically as a body of great church has nothing to do with political parties nor partisan politics. Its every member has the inherent right of every free born American citizen to exercise an untrammelled and unchallenged franchise. The body is not concerned whether its members supported Cox or Harding, this candidate, that or the other. This is a matter of individual and inherent right."

GLENVILLE MINISTER NOT DIS-MISSED FROM CONFERENCE
BECAUSE OF POLITICS.

(By Rev. W. A. Brooks)

Moultrie, Ga., Nov. 22.—The South Georgia Methodist conference, which is concluding its lengthy session here, issued a denial that any political or personal feelings resulted in the dismissal of Rev. Cecil R. Phillips, of Glenville, without his request at last Saturday's session. Rev. Phillips in a statement to newspaper men shortly after the conference took action, claimed that he was dismissed from the conference because he took an active part in recent Watson-Hardwick campaign in August.

The following statement was issued from the seat of the conference: "As there have gone forth to the state press such erroneous statements relative to the discontinuance last Saturday morning of Rev. Cecil R. Phillips, of Glenville, in justice to him and the South Georgia Conference it becomes necessary to make a full statement of the facts in the case."

"First, ours is a 'sent' rather than a 'called' ministry, therefore, every preacher in the Methodist Interdenominational Ministry must, to some degree at least, show some general adaptability to his work as a pastor and a preacher."

"Second that every man is on trial in his particular sphere of activity, and if he fails to make good, he must meet the attendant consequences as the written or unwritten law of all denominations of life."

"Rev. Phillips was accepted in 1917 on trial by the South Georgia Conference. The law touching his case as well as that of every minister who enters the Methodist Interdenominational Ministry is as follows: 'No one shall be admitted on trial unless he first procures a recommendation from the district conference of his circuit station, or mission, or from the licensing committee of the district conference; nor shall a vote be taken upon the admission of any candidate who has not passed an approved examination upon the course of study prescribed by the bishops, before a committee appointed, the conference may then admit him as a probationer by a vote of a majority. Otherwise, this relation of being on trial embraces the requisites of a competent preacher and must only as well to proper administrative qualifications as to acceptable preaching ability."

"One on trial may be dismissed for want of efficiency in either of these respects, without doing him any wrong, otherwise, it would not be a trial at all. Now, Rev. Phillips has been on trial three years and had completed only one year's course of study, when he should have completed three. One preacher in Southern Methodism was allowed sixteen years to complete a four year's course of study, this leniency wrought great harm to the cause of the church, and created dissatisfaction among some of the laymen in the charge which he served, and was a great humiliation to every successful and respectable member of the conference."

"Patience on the part of his brethren. No, there are no other when patience ceases to be a virtue."

"Third, Rev. L. W. Colson, presiding elder of the McKee district, within whose bounds Glenville is located, urged with all the earnestness of his soul, that the conference grant Mr. Phillips, at least one more year of trial. The conference felt that Rev. Mr. Phillips had already had three years of trial instead of two as provided by the church; that he is of mature manhood, and there was not a single valid reason which obtained why he should be continued on trial from year to year, as might have been done in the case of a younger minister."

CONGRESSIONAL AID
PROMISED FARMERSWESTERN HOUSE MEMBERS WILL UNITE ON SOME FORM OF RELIEF.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Party lines are to be obliterated and forgotten by mid-western and western members of the house and senate this winter in an effort to do something about the situation which has stirred resentment among farmers and livestock raisers, it was learned here today.

Informal conferences already held among Republican and Democratic senators from western states have resulted in at least one formal conference of all senators from western states soon after the December session begins, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, stated today.

At this conference a working program is to be mapped out, if possible, for concrete action by senators from farm and livestock states, regardless of party, in the interests of the producers.

The first test of their strength is to be made on the Kenyon-Kendrick packer bill, which will come before the senate as soon as it meets next week. Mr. Phillips said today that he and other Democratic senators will support the bill energetically, and will seek to amend it to reach some of the evils the wheat and corn farmers are complaining of.

Senators hostile to any regulation of the packers are preparing to talk the bill to death, by discussing the League of Nations, the recent election and various other matters.

But Mr. Hitchcock predicted that they would have difficulty sidetracking the measure, because of the strong support it will command.

"Farmers in the corn and wheat sections have been aroused to great resentment," said Mr. Hitchcock, "because of conditions which have lowered prices to an extent that makes their future ruinous. Corn is selling at less than cost of production and some corn farmers are threatening to burn it rather than buy coal. The farmers feel there is something wrong with the marketing system, or control of the markets, and they demand that some corrective measures be taken."

"We westerners are going to try to get together regardless of party on measures in behalf of our constituency."

BULLOCH MOVES UPWARD IN GINNERS' REPORT

The ginner's report for the season up to November 21, which has just been made public, shows a total of 996,001 bales ginned in Georgia for the year against 1,380 last year, a decrease of 1,383 for the year.

Incidentally it is interesting to note that Bulloch has moved up quite a pace in the rank of Georgia counties in the ginning, ranking now twenty-first in number of bales ginned, as against thirtieth place last year. The counties which Bulloch has passed during the year are: Bartow, which fell from 19,708 to 9,375; Carroll, from 23,399 to 18,510; Cobb, from 15,008 to 6,149; Coweta, from 22,583 to 2,650; Emanuel, from 18,911 to 13,518; Floyd, from 16,221 to 6,616; Greene, from 15,722 to 9,722; Gwinnett, from 19,363 to 11,058; Hancock, from 16,597 to 9,224; Meriwether, from 17,299 to 12,541; Pike, from 18,341 to 13,179; Spalding, from 16,083 to 10,055; Washington, from 19,124 to 11,462.

Four counties went ahead of Bulloch during the year, as follows: Colquitt, which increased from 10,621 to 14,457; Dooley, from 12,377 to 15,938; Mitchell, from 12,807 to 11,441; and Sumter, from 14,767 to 21,169.

FIVE NEGROES HELD ON ASSAULT CHARGE

FUTCH HOME AT NEVILLS STATION
SCENE OF MYSTERIOUS
AFFAIR SATURDAY NIGHT.

Five negroes, Amos Hall, Ebis Hagin, Cap Rawls, Angus Fraser and Andrew Marshall, are held in the county jail here as the result of a mysterious affair at Nevills station Saturday night, which came near resulting fatally to one of the negroes, and wherein one white man was seriously injured.

It was at the home of William Futch about 10 o'clock Saturday night that the incident occurred. Mr. Futch and his son-in-law, Mr. Farley Miller, who had been at work at another of Mr. Futch's places, returned and found a negro whom they did not recognize, but who later was found to be Amos Hall, standing upon the porch. Mr. Futch came in from the rear of the house and opened the door, when the negro struck him a stunning blow upon the head and rushed upon him. Mr. Miller recovered himself and grappled with the negro, the two struggling off the porch into the yard. The law requires that the tax collector shall make three rounds through the county, visiting each mill district. It also requires that the books shall be kept open continuously at the court house from the 1st to the 20th of December. Because of delay in receiving the digest (due to the dispute between the county and the state over the increase in valuations), the receiving was a month or so late in receiving his digest back from the hands of the comptroller. This threw the collector late, consequently making it impossible to comply with the provisions of the law requiring three rounds and holding the books open at the court house for twenty days.

Incidentally, it may be remarked that apparently it will make little difference whether the books are kept open at all, if all one may judge from the talk one hears in regard to financial conditions. Certain it is, there will be no prolonged rush to meet the tax collector, and whatever collecting he does will probably be at the very close of his stay in Statesboro.

There has been some talk of a movement upon the part of some taxpayers to contest the collections of taxes in Bulloch this year, however, it is not known how far the matter has gone. Petitions were drawn for circulation during the past week raising funds to employ counsel; but if they were ever put into circulation, it has not been learned.

This proposed action was based upon the understanding that the United States courts had set aside some part of the state tax law as unconstitutional, and it was believed that the 25 percent increase placed upon Bulloch by the arbitration act might bring the taxpayers of the county within the exempted class so far as the increase was concerned. It was said that lawyers had advised action in the courts would hold in favor of the taxpayers.

It will be remembered that the local equalizers added something like $1,700,000 to the valuation of Bulloch county property over last year. In addition, the state tax commissioner ordered an increase of 30 per cent. Arbitrators were appointed, and by a vote of two to one a rate of 25 per cent was levied. The increase in valuation this year over last is more than 50 per cent, the total reaching approximately $12,000,000. The county rate of taxes is $12 on the $1,000, which added to the state rate of $5.00 makes a total rate of $17.00 per $1,000.

ROAD OPEN AGAIN BETWEEN GUYTON AND STATESBORO

Guyton, Nov. 22.—The road from Guyton and Pinecon, leading to the Cone bridge over the Ogeechee river, which has been closed to traffic for fourteen months on account of the building of three concrete trestle bridges on the Bulloch county side of the river, is now open. Great inconvenience has been caused the general public on account of this road having been closed so long, this being the most important highway to Statesboro and other towns in Bulloch county, and the news that "you can now cross the river" is received with great rejoicing.

PACKING PLANT IN

EMPLOYEES TAKE OUT LIENS
FOR WAGES DUE IN MAN-AGERS' ABSENCE.

Another chapter in the history of the local packing plant was written Tuesday when Sheriff DeLoach levied upon it a number of liens in favor of former employees for wages accrued. This action against the plant was decided upon by the employees after two pay days had passed by without the pay roll being met. The total amount of wages due is said to be approximately $1,200, though the liens were for considerably less than that amount, as a number of employees declined to enter into the proceedings with the others.

R. M. Williams, the manager of the Southern States Packing, who has been in charge of the plant here since the terms of purchase were agreed upon last summer, is understood to be in Louisville, Ky., looking after plans which would insure the consummation of the deal and the continuance of the operations. His stay in Louisville has been extended somewhat longer than was understood to be in Louisville, Ky., looking after plans which would insure the consummation of the deal and the continuance of the operations. His stay in Louisville has been extended somewhat longer than was understood to be in Louisville, Ky., looking after plans which would insure the consummation of the deal and the continuance of the operations.

During the absence of the manager, the vice president of the new concern, Mr. Williamson, who is engaged in business in Jacksonville, Fla., came to Statesboro and conferred with the workmen, assuring them that they would not lose the money due them. He returned to Jacksonville Saturday night, and it is understood that he was expected back Tuesday. His failure to return at the time expected, added to the restlessness of the employees who had been waiting for their money, and the laborers' liens were taken out as a result.

There have been ten or fifteen employees at the plant for the past several months, most of them being home men. Two who came from Macon returned there yesterday.

The title to the property has never passed into the Southern States Packing Company. A South contract of sale exists between the directors of the old Bulloch Packing Company and the new concern. At a sale of the plant in the spring the directors were forced to bid the property in and assume the indebtedness, amounting to near $80,000. The new corporation was never able to comply with the terms of their purchase from the directors, and have never paid anything on the purchase price.

The lien taken out by the employees is directed against the betterments and property purchased by the new corporation, and does not affect the old property in any way.

It is understood that both Messrs. Williams and Williamson, of the new corporation, and who were its chief promoters give assurance that they have not yet abandoned their intention to carry the deal through, and that early developments may be expected. It has also been stated that corporation has already been floated, though the sale has been rather difficult.

FOUR MEN CONVICTED FOR KILLING DEPUTY

Reidsville, Ga., Nov. 23.—Four men were convicted here tonight of the charge of murder with recommendation to mercy in connection with the slaying of Wade Coleman, a deputy sheriff, on July 24.

The four, who were immediately given life terms in the penitentiary, were Kelly Coleman, Abram Sikes, Ranch Sikes, and George Sikes.

The shooting occurred while the deputy was trying to search an automobile for liquor, it is claimed.
